

Tracy Simmons

above the fold

31 Hillcrest Ave, B • Waterbury, CT 06705 • (203) 278-4214 • tracy@tracy-simmons.com

Objective

To use the tools I've learned as a journalist to educate, entertain and inform people through the power of words and through multimedia

Education

M.A., Communication, Eastern New Mexico University, 2008
B.A., Print Journalism, Eastern New Mexico University, 2003
Undergraduate program completed in three years, 3.5 GPA

Work Experience

2007–Present

Features/Religion/Bureau Writer
Waterbury Republican-American, Waterbury, CT
Write weekly feature section cover stories; maintain religion blog; cover religion issues for region; cover local government; enhance presentation of stories with multimedia; research topics with photographers and subjects to schedule appropriate photo opportunities

2006–07

Features Writer
Lubbock Avalanche Journal, Lubbock, Texas
Write weekly section cover stories; maintain religion blog; cover education and youth issues for region; enhance presentation of stories with multimedia; research topics of interest and generate creative and interesting story ideas in rural locale; work with photographers and subjects to schedule appropriate photo opportunities

2006–Present

Freelance Writer
XPRT Creative, Portales, NM
Write press releases for specific events and activities as requested

2004–06

Education/Religion Reporter
Victoria Advocate, Victoria, Texas
Covered school board meetings, church news; completed other daily assignments

2003–04

News Writing Instructor
Eastern New Mexico University, Portales, NM
Taught undergraduate students Associated Press Style Guide; maintained grade records; assisted other instructors with classroom activities as needed

Summer 2000, 2003

General Assignment Reporter
The Albuquerque Tribune, Albuquerque, NM
Covered hard and soft news stories; interviewed and researched for daily and weekly articles

2002–2004

General Assignment Reporter/Paginator
The Clovis News Journal, Clovis, NM
Edited text and photos for each page; organized stories and content; paginated newspaper, creating headlines, subheads and nut graphs; interviewed and researched for local events; submitted freelance work to sister newspapers

Continued on next Page

Tracy Simmons

above the fold

1999–2003

Editor-in-Chief

Eastern New Mexico University's The Chase, Portales, NM

Assigned stories; managed staff of 10–15 at any given time; wrote stories as needed; paginated the newspaper; distributed the publication to various locations on campus and in the community; edited stories; assigned photographer to specific events; other duties as needed

Job Skills

General

Writer; manager; motivator; team builder

Computer/Technical

Microsoft Word, Excel, Outlook, Publisher, PowerPoint, Macromedia /Adobe Dreamweaver, Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Illustrator, Adobe InDesign, Adobe PageMaker, Quark Express; Audacity sound editing software, Soundslides audio slideshow software, Digital voice recorder, Digital camera.

Honors/Awards

- Lubbock Avalanche-Journal Editor's Award two-time winner, 2007
- ENMU Outstanding Student in Journalism, 2003
- The Chase Staff Writer of the Year, 2002
- Scripps Howard Lighthouse Award winner, 2000

Certifications and Professional Development

- Poynter workshop in San Antonio, 2005
- American Press Institute narrative writing workshop, 2006
- Yale Divinity School Writing About Faith class, 2008

Organizations

“Hard work and perseverance are my best qualities. As a journalist I give my all to every story I write. I don't want to publish an article if it has holes in it.”